W. E. Frost and wife, of Wallapai Springs, are visiting in Kingman.

The trustees of the M. E. church are preparing to build a parsonage near the church.

The Carter mine continues to show up well, the recent strike improving with every foot of development.

Judge W. G. Blakely departed to Los Angeles and San Bernardino last Sunday evening, where he is looking after important legal matters.

Attorney W. E. Ginder returned from Los Angeles and San Diego a few days ago, having looked after legal matters during his absence.

Carr, Davis and Nelson are this week receiving their first consignment of sheep, and are preparing to dispose of their entire holdings of cattle and turn their range entirely over to the growing of sheep.

Eli Hilty, superintendent of the Ruth Mining company, was in from that property this week. Mr. Hilty believes the Ruth to be one of the best properties in the Silver Creek section.

D. T. Price, H. F. Williams and John Hamilton will leave tomorrow for Phenix, where they will represent Kingman lodge of Pythians at the session of the grand lodge, which convenes in the Capital city next Monday.

W. O. Ruggles, a well known mining man, who was a resident of this county a few years ago, came in from Los Angeles last Monday. Mr. Ruggles is surprised with the advance in mining that has been made in this county the past two years and believes it has a wonderful future.

S. R. Davis and Peter White have gone to the Tyro mines, where they will do the assessment work for the year 1909. The Tyro is one of the big properties of the Union Pass section and will undoubtedly be brought into the producing class when the necessary capital is found to operate it.

Dr. J. R. Whiteside and J. H. Rosenberg have been hard at work getting up a mineral display for the Phenix Fair. They have shipped about two tons of ore by freight and will take all the fine specimens with them tomorrow. The rich specimens loaned to the commissioners will be displayed in special cases and will be under the personal care of Messrs. Whiteside and Rosenberg.

Mrs. Lillian McMahon and Dr. H. K. Marshall were united in marriage at Prescott a few days ago. After the wedding the happy couple departed by train to San Francisco, whence they will go to Manila, P. I., where Dr. Marshall will be stationed for some time. Dr. Marshall is an officer in the regular army. Mrs. Marshall's many friends in this county wish her success in her new life.

It now looks as though Stockton Hill will be one of the liveliest sections of Mohave county the coming year. Practically all the mines in that section have been taken over by the big mining corporations and work will be commenced on them by the first of January. Those who are fortunate enough to hold on their mines will undoubtedly profit by the entry of the new company and may realize good figures for the properties in the near future.

We were fortunate last night in witnessing one of the pictures to be run tonight at Elks Opera House—The Bewitched Manor House. It is indeed worth going far to see and those that view it tonight will get far more than their money's worth. Tomorrow night the picture—The Glories of Sunset—will impress everyone that sees it. It is one of the most gorgeously beautiful pictures ever made for a motion picture. It shows the evening sun going down in a magnificent setting of cloud and sea and sky, the halo and spears of light as they break out across the sky, the grey deepening shadows, the flashes and scintillations of light, that gradually grow into deeper night, to finally be effaced by the silvery light of the moon on a setting of white winged ships on a peaceful ocean.

Charles Grube Injured.

Thursday morning Charles Grube, driver of one of the big oil teams for Lovin & Withers, fell from his wagon at the seven mile post and the wheels of the wagon passed over his left leg causing a compound fracture. The right foot was caught by the wheels, but only one toe was injured and the ankle received a severe wrench. The injured man never lost consciousness, although he was not found for nearly two hours after the accident. The mail stage coming from Goldroad found the team without a driver two miles beyond where the accident occurred, and after tying the horses up they came on and picked up Grube and brought him to town. Drs. Whiteside and Cowie were called and dressed the wounds, after which Grube was sent to Los Angeles on the evening train for treatment. One of the peculiar features of the accident was the action of the team in going without a driver until it reached the top of the hill, nine miles out, where they stopped. Had they begun the descent without driver or brakes it is probable that a dreadful accident would have occurred.

Last Tuesday the Sheriff's office was notified that the skeleton of a man had been found on a sand bar in the middle of the Colorado river, opposite Fort Mohave. Deputy Sheriff Gideon and Judge W. H. Welsh, of Goldroad, departed the following day to the river, where they found the body as described. All the bones exposed were picked clean of flesh, while the extremities buried in the sand still retained some flesh. Part of the scalp on the back part of the head was still intact and showed some gray hair. The man was white and apparently about fifty years of age. The molars on the left side of the jaw were gone, but the other teeth were intact. There was a fracture of the skull on the left side, from which the bone had fallen leaving the brain cavity exposed. Evidently the man had been in the river about four months. About that time a man working on the construction of the big dredger, near Eldorado Canyon had become insane and jumped into the river and so far as we know, his body has not been recovered. It is possible that the remains found were this man. By order of the coroner the remains were brought to the Arizona side of the river and buried.

A recent examination of the children at the Truxton Canyon Indian school developed the fact that fifty per cent of them are afflicted with trachoma, the dread eye disease. Only a few of these are in an advanced stage, but all should be isolated and treatment given at the school that the spread of the disease may be prevented. The government has established a hospital for the treatment of the Indian children at Phenix, but it is doubtful if any of the Wallapais will go there unless the going is made compulsory. Many of the old members of the tribe are blind or nearly so from trachoma and its spread throughout the tribe is rapid. Something ought to be done in the matter or this disease will be communicated to the whites.

W. G. Gruninger is building a residence in the Cohencour addition to Kingman.

Last Monday afternoon Messrs. Clement and Razez, representing the Winchester Arms company, entertained the people of Kingman with some of the fanciest trick shooting ever seen in the county. The gentlemen are surely in a class by themselves in the matter of fancy shooting and the scores they made with the small rifles is almost unbelievable. Hatchets perforated by soft nosed bullets from a 35 caliber rifle as a result of the shoot are now on exhibition at the gun stores in town.

Chapped skin whether on the hands or face may be cured in one night by applying Chamberlain's Salve. It is also unequalled for sore nipples, burns and scalds. For sale by H. H. Watkins.

Boost your home company. The Gold Road Red Top Mining Co. is a home organization. Stock is now selling at 15 cents per share.

The people of Mesquite and Littlefield have combined their interests and will carry a canal from the Virgin river to the lands that are now outside of the irrigated area. There is a large body of land in that section that will become very valuable when water can be brought in and a large settlement is sure to spring up.

Work is progressing on the Horse Shoe mine, at Cerbat, the big shaft being carried down at a rapid rate. When the shaft reaches the 300 level drifts will be run off to the veins, where it is expected good ore will be encountered.

On the night of October 30th, at Oatman, a sheet and pillow case dance and basket social was given for the benefit of Oatman Miners Union. Baskets met a ready sale at good prices, the guests yielding with each other in bidding up the desirable baskets. After supper dancing was continued until the small hours of morning. The occasion was one of enjoyment and the committee having the matter in charge were heartily congratulated on its success. The following day a ball game between the Oatman nine and a nine from Goldroad resulted in a score of 26 to 5 in favor of Oatman.

Why not get in on the big ledge. The Gold Road Red Top Mining Co. stock at 15 cents per share is a good investment.
